PROLOGUE

Fire, Water, Wind, and Earth. Peace and prosperity reign thanks to the power of these four crystals.

However...that power is nearing its limit. Not far off is the day when the wind slows, the water stills, and the earth trembles and quakes...

Yet everyone remains blissfully unaware, and the grave secret hidden within the crystals remains untold...

CHARACTERS

BART'Z KLAUSER

An orphaned young man who travels the world with Boko, his chocobo companion. Though sometimes blunt, Bartz possesses a sense of justice that won't allow him to abandon those in need. Having studied with his late father, Bartz's skills with a blade are nothing to laugh at.

LENNNA CHARLOTTE TYCOON

The kind and gentle-hearted princess of Tycoon. She searches for her father, last seen on his way to the Wind Shrine. Unable to save her sick mother's life, Lenna now sometimes acts recklessly to protect those around her.

GALUF DOE

An old man with a serious case of amnesia, Galuf's past is a mystery. However, his seasoned swordsmanship and lordly presence hint at a history as a proud warrior. Upbeat and outspoken, Galuf always has words of encouragement for the rest of the group.

FARIS SCHERWIZ

The captain of an unruly yet loyal band of pirates. A fierce and focused fighter, once Faris' sights are set on something, the pirate's soul will stop at nothing to have it. Despite being young, Faris easily commands the respect of others.

THE ADVENTURE BEGINS

Your FINAL FANTASY V Advance adventure plays out in three different types of views:

FIELD/ DUNGEON/TOWN

Travel to many places and advance the story from this view. The bulk of the game will be spent here.

MENU [PP. 16-23]

Press START while on the field to open the menu. Here you can check and examine your inventory, adjust equipment or jobs, or customize other settings.

BATTLE [PP. 24-29]

When you encounter monsters on the field or during events, the action will switch to this view. Here you can choose different battle commands in order to fight.

AROUND THE WORLD

The field view is where most of your adventure occurs. Here characters do substantial work – everything from trekking across the world to searching out information in towns and villages. They can also shop here, or rest at an inn.

The Field

Your characters act differently in the field than in dungeons or towns. After you get the world map, you can check your location in the world by pressing the R Button from anywhere in the field.

The Field

Town/Dungeon

All Sorts of Transportation

Here is a brief introduction to some types of transportation you will encounter on your quest. In general, you can board or disembark with the A Button.

CHOCOBOS

Chocobos run over land much faster than you can travel on foot.

AIRSHIPS

With an airship, the skies are yours. Landing on fields or in deep water is no problem.

BOATS

Sail to faraway lands with a good ship.

Talking/Examining

Press the A Button to speak to other characters, examine boxes or chests for items, flip switches, or perform any number of other actions. You never know just who or what will yield important information, so you'll use this button a lot!

Recovery Springs

Springs with magical properties are scattered around dungeons and towns throughout the world. Drink from a recovery spring to fully restore HP and MP (p. 17), and cure status ailments (p. 29).

The Greenhorn's Club

The Greenhorn's Club is full of great advice for novice adventurers. If you have the chance to visit this special place, definitely take it.

Towns

They say that money makes the world go 'round, and there are plenty of places to spend your hard-earned gil. Resting at an inn will restore HP and MP, as well as cure all status ailments except zombification. Shopkeepers around the world are always willing to sell you the finest new goods, and even buy back old or unneeded equipment.

Shopping

Speak to a shopkeeper to open up the shop menu. Choose to buy or sell, and you will be presented with a list of items the shop sells or your own inventory. Select the item you want to purchase (or sell) with the +Control Pad, and confirm with the A Button.

MAIN MENU

Perform various actions such as checking character status, saving your game, and more from the main menu.

Press START while in the field to open the menu. You can check the party's status, use items or magic, select equipment, or change other settings.

Navigating the Menu

The character placed at the top of the menu is who appears as you move around the world. As the game progresses, you will be able to select Jobs and Abilities as well.

Party Members

Check characters' levels, HP, MP, current job, and status ailments.

Job Information	Current job and job level, current ABP/ABP required to level up (p. 32)
Bartz Knight LV 2+ HP 172 / 197 MP 267 / 300	HP/Max HP HP measures a character's life force. When that character is hurt in battle, HP will decrease.
Level In fighting battles, the party will gain experience. Once this combined experience rises to a certain level, a party member will become stronger and more able.	MP/Max MP MP is a measure of a character's magical reserves. As spells are cast, MP will decrease.

Changing Formation

Press +Control Pad Left on the main menu to move the cursor over party members. Now you can change the party's order, or change the row of specific characters.

Select the character you want to move and press the A Button. Choose another character and press the A Button to switch the characters' positions. Selecting the character you want to move and then pressing the A Button twice will change them from the front row (p. 28) to the back, and vice versa.

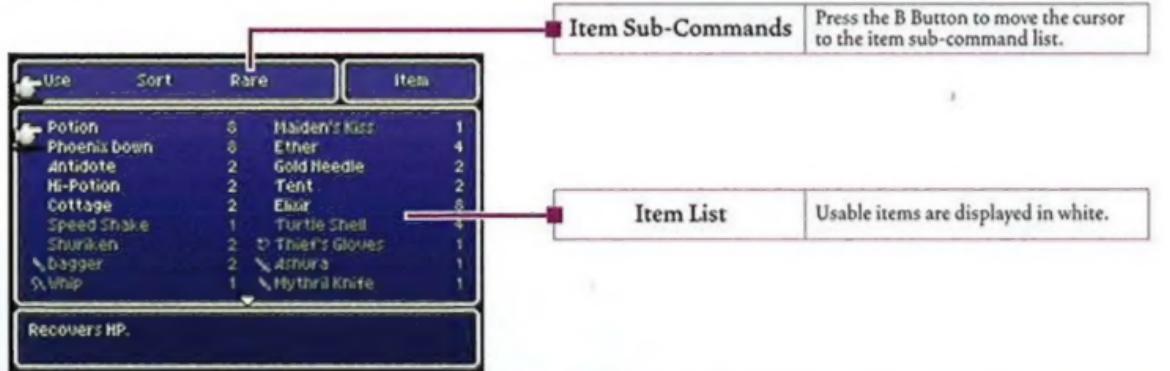

MENU COMMANDS

An explanation of commands displayed on the main menu.

Item

Select Item to open the inventory, where you can check the numbers and descriptions of items in your possession, as well as use them. You can scroll the inventory list with the L and R Buttons.

Item Sub-Commands

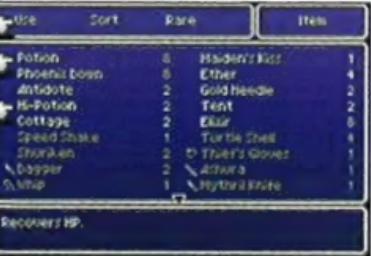

Use Select items to use them.

Sort Automatically arrange items by type.

Rare Special quest items or personal items are kept here.

Using Items

Move the cursor to the item you want to use, then press the A Button twice to use it. Depending on the item, you may need to select a target.

Arranging the Inventory

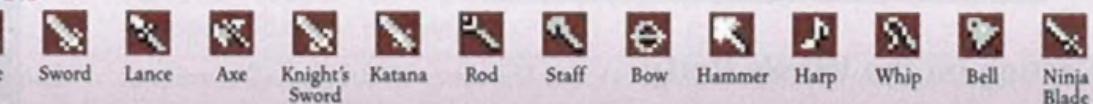

Select an item with the A Button, then move the cursor to the desired position and press the A Button again. This will switch the positions of the two selected items.

Equipable Gear

There are many types of gear that can be equipped by party members.

In the inventory, the different types of gear are indicated by different icons.

WEAPONS

ARMOR

Magic

With this command, you can check the effects of spells you have already learned, or cast spells on the party. Select the type of magic you want to check, then choose the spell you want to use from the spell list. In addition to meeting certain conditions to become a mage, you must obtain spells from magic shops, or find them hidden around the world.

The screenshot shows the Magic screen. At the top left is a "Types of Magic" button. To its right is a "Character Information (p. 17)" button. Below these are two character boxes: "White" (Lv. 2) and "Lenna" (Lv. 6). Lenna is identified as a "White Mage". Below the characters is a "Spell List" section containing "CURE", "Libra", and "Poisona". A note below the list states "Usable spells are displayed in white." At the bottom of the screen is a message: "Restores HP." and "MP Cost 4".

Casting on the Whole Party

Spells can be cast on the entire party. When selecting a target for the spell, press +Control Pad Right to target everyone, then press the A Button to cast.

Equip

Use this screen to equip weapons or armor. The gear a character can equip will change depending on the job and abilities they have set. Except for shields, pieces of armor may or may not be equippable depending on the character's job.

The screenshot shows the Equip screen for a character. At the top are buttons for "Equip", "Unequip", "Optimize", "Unequip All", and "Equip". Below these are sections for "Right Hand", "Left Hand", "Head", "Body", and "Accessory". Under "Right Hand", items like "Dagger", "Leather Cap", and "Black Mage Can equip" are listed. Under "Accessory", "Magical rod" is shown. On the right side, there is a table of stats:

	Strength	Agility	Stamina	Magic	Attack	Defense	Evasion	Magic Defense	Equip Weight
1	16	27	24	57	14	3	0	3	4
1	16	27	24	58	15	3	0%	3	4

Annotations on the right side explain various parts of the screen:

- "Currently Equipped Gear" points to the "Black Mage" entry.
- "Equip Sub-Commands" points to the top row of buttons.
- "Types of Gear the Character Can Equip (p. 19)" points to the "Can equip" entry.
- "Equippable Gear" points to the "Dagger" entry.
- "Stats" points to the table of stats, with a note that yellow values indicate higher stats than the currently equipped gear, and red values indicate lower stats.

Equip Sub-Commands

Equip Select the body part you would like to equip, then select an item. Gear that cannot be equipped will not be displayed.

Optimize Automatically equips the weapons and armor that provide the highest attack and defense stats.

Unequip Select the body part you would like to remove equipment from, then press the A Button.

Unequip All Removes all of the character's equipment.

Status

Check characters' strength, levels, experience points, and more.

BATTLE VIEW

When attacked by enemies in dungeons or in the field, you will be taken to this screen to fight. Choose from different commands to fight your way to victory.

Battle

After entering battle, each character has a gauge that rises according to their agility stats. Enter commands in the order each character's gauge is filled. Enemies can continue to attack while you select commands, spells, or items.

You can stop the passage of time during command selection by changing the Battle Mode setting in the Config menu to Wait.

Enemy Name

Ending a Battle

Battles end when all enemies have been defeated, all enemies have fled, or the party has fled. Winning battles can earn the party money (gil), experience points, ability points (p. 30), or even items.

Treasure

Sometimes defeated enemies drop treasure. Choose to Take All treasures or Exit the menu.

Game Over

The game ends when the entire party is KO'd, petrified, or zombified (p. 29). You will have to restart from the last place you saved, so be sure to save often.

BATTLE COMMANDS

Attack

Attack the enemy with the currently equipped weapon. If nothing is equipped, a barehanded attack will be performed. You can select a target for your attack.

Specialized Commands

Different jobs (p. 30) and abilities (p. 32) will cause different commands to become available (for example, Summon, Jump, or Steal).

Selecting All

Some specialized commands, such as Magic, can be performed on all allies or all enemies. When choosing a target, continue to press the +Control Pad until all enemies or all allies are selected.

A description of basic commands used in battle.

Item

Use items or change equipment. Select the item or weapon to use, then select the target.

Changing Weapons During Battle

Select Item, and the inventory will be displayed. Press +Control Pad Up to display the equipment area, then select the gear you would like to remove with the A Button. Select the weapon you would like to equip, and confirm with the A Button.

Special Encounters

Some enemy encounters may feature different positioning, such as preemptive strikes or back attacks. In a preemptive strike, the party's ATB gauges (p. 24) will be filled from the start. In a back attack, the party will be caught from behind, meaning the back row will be in front (p. 28), and vice versa.

Defend

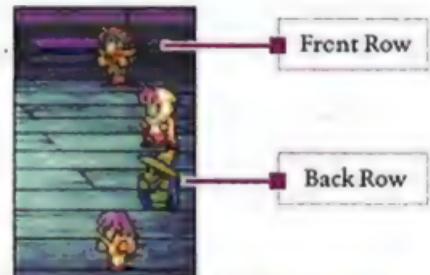

Press +Control Pad Right when selecting a command, and the Defend option will appear. Press the A Button, and characters will brace themselves against physical attacks.

Row

Press +Control Pad Left when selecting a command, and the Row option will appear. Pressing the A Button will switch that character's row.

Front Row and Back Row

Characters in the front row will deliver stronger blows, but take more damage. Characters in the back row will take less damage, but inflict weaker blows.

Fleeing

Press and hold the L and R Buttons in battle to run away. However, you cannot run from certain battles, so look out!

Status Ailments

When hit by enemies' special attacks, you may suffer one or more of the status ailments listed below. They can be cured with items or magic, and some fade after battle.

Do not subside after battle

KO

HP falls to zero; cannot act until restored.

PETRIFY

Turned to stone, unable to move.

TOAD

Attack and defense decrease; can't cast any spell but "Toad."

MINI

Attack and defense decrease.

POISON

HP gradually falls.

DARKNESS

Vision worsens; physical attacks more likely to miss.

ZOMBIE

Become undead; attack allies.

Subside after battle

AGING

Stats fall little by little.

SILENCE

Unable to use magic other than Blue Magic.

SLEEP

Fall asleep; cannot act until awakened.

PARALYZE

Cannot move; unable to act.

CONFUSE

Commands not accepted; may attack allies or heal enemies.

BERSERK

Commands not accepted; repeatedly perform physical attacks.

JOBS & ABILITIES

An explanation of jobs, abilities, and the job system.

Why Get a Job?

Jobs describe the type of warrior a particular character is. Depending on the job a character has set, they gain different commands and abilities. For more on the different jobs and their special abilities, please see pages 34-41.

ABP and Job Levels

When a job other than freelancer is set, ability points (ABP) will be gained by winning battles. Once enough ABP have been gained, the character's job level will increase, earning that character new abilities (p. 32).

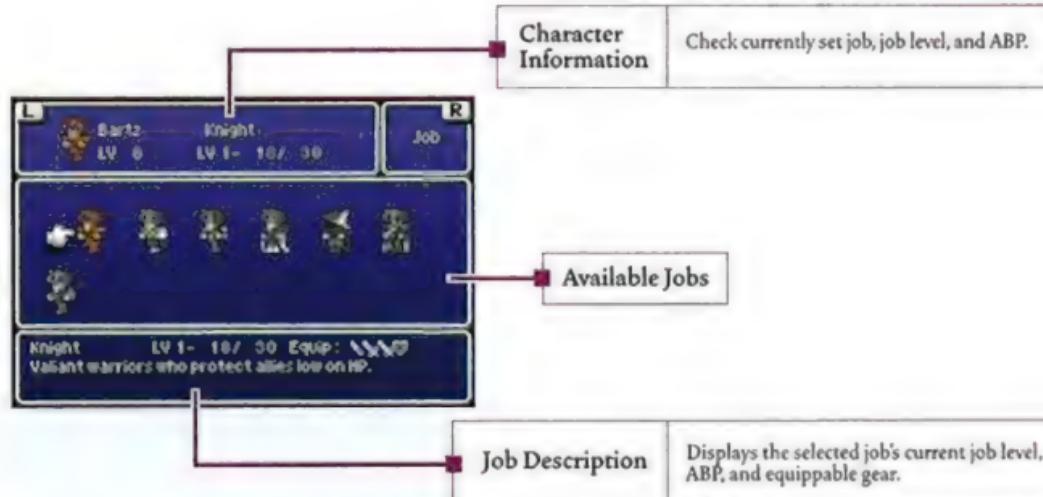

Job Commands and Specialties

Each job has a specialized command (p. 26) that can be used in battle, as well as special abilities inherent to that job. These commands and inherent abilities are learned as jobs level up, and then can be used even while a different job is set. Not all inherent abilities can be learned.

The Job Screen

Choose Job from the main menu (p. 16) and select a character to open the Job screen.

Changing Jobs

Characters' jobs are changed on the Job screen. Choose a job from the list. The gear characters can equip changes depending on their job and abilities, so once a new job is selected, you will automatically be taken to the Ability screen (p. 32), and then to the Equip screen (p. 21).

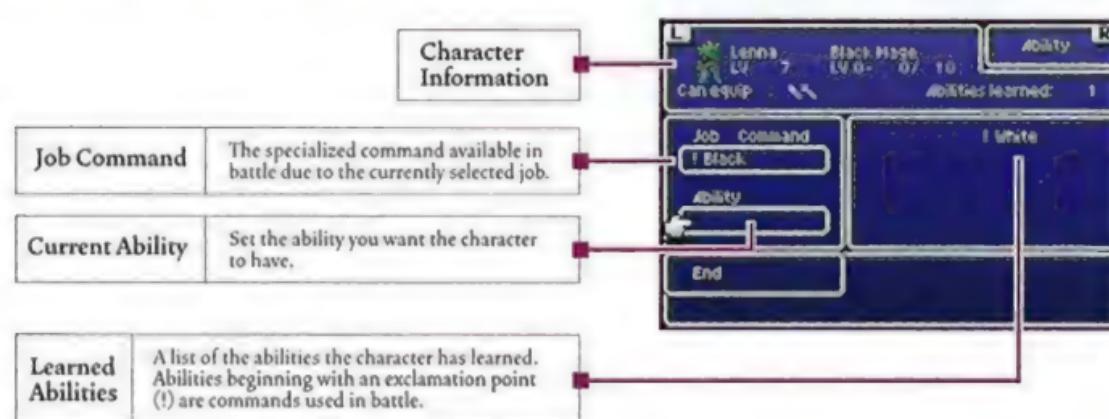

What's an Ability?

Each job has special abilities inherent to it. As a job's level increases, characters begin learning those abilities, and can use abilities separate from their respective jobs. Once an ability is learned, it can be set onto a job through the Ability screen.

Some jobs have more learnable abilities than others.

The Ability Screen

Choose Ability from the main menu, and select a character. You can then set abilities for that character.

Setting Abilities

After selecting an ability from the list, move the cursor to End.

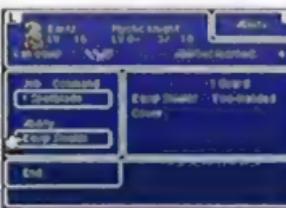

Ready, Willing, but Unable...

While all abilities are helpful, some combinations of jobs and abilities or abilities and commands may cancel each other out, or even be harmful to the character. Pay close attention to the effects of abilities when setting them!

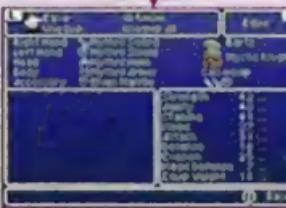

You can set the ability "Berserk" on a white mage, but...

...since they're berserk in battle, they won't be able to use magic at all!

You can set the ability "Equip Shields" on a mystic knight, but...

...mystic knights can already equip shields, so there's no point!

JOB LIST

A brief introduction to the different jobs and their inherent abilities. Though you begin the game as a freelancer, more jobs will become available to you as your quest progresses.*

FREELANCER

Jacks-of-all-trades, freelancers are what all characters start out as. They have no particular specialization, but can equip any type of weapon or armor.

Freelancers do not gain job levels.
